THE ISLAND · PLACENCIA, BELIZE

Five Minutes from the Village

Little Harvest Caye is a 1.5-acre private island in the sheltered water off the Placencia Peninsula in southern Belize, completed in 2016 by the group behind Gladden Private Island.

A rock wall rings all but the leeward side, where a white sand beach shelves into warm, calm water. The island looks back to Placencia Village and the Maya Mountains in one direction and out to the open Caribbean in the other.

STAY

Five Suites, Each Its Own

Five private suites stand around the island's main palapa, each oriented to the trade winds and the water, with a covered patio and an open-air thatched bathroom — walk-in showers, and in the Dolphin Master Suite a free-standing tub.

THE SUITES

Dolphin Master Suite	king bed · two day beds
Jaguar Suite	king bed · day bed
Howler Monkey Suite	two queen beds
Permit Suite	king bed
Manatee Suite	king bed

Jaguar and Howler Monkey share a wall; the other suites stand apart. Every bedroom has high-efficiency air conditioning run on the island's solar power, a flat-screen TV and WiFi — though most days the trade winds do the cooling.

LIFE ON THE ISLAND

Life on the Island

THE TABLE

The island's private chef cooks three meals a day, up to six days a week, from a menu agreed with the concierge before you arrive. Food is charged at cost — usually $40–$50 per person per day, receipts provided, nothing marked up.

THE WATER

A large freshwater pool with a tanning ledge sits beside the palapa, and the leeward beach shelves into warm, clear water. Coral shows on the front and south sides for snorkelling; fishing off the dock is catch and release.

THE DAY

The great palapa holds the bar, the kitchen, a pool table, ping pong and a private study. Kayaks and paddle boards wait at the beach, and a four-seat golf cart waits in the village for runs along the peninsula.

THE REGION · STANN CREEK, BELIZE

Placencia on the Doorstep

Placencia Village lies less than a mile across the water — a fishing village turned laid-back resort town at the tip of a 17-mile peninsula, with beach bars, restaurants and dive shops along its famous sidewalk.

The concierge arranges the days out: snorkelling the Silk Cayes, the Monkey River wildlife run, whale sharks offshore between March and June, and inland days to the Maya ruins and caves of the Cayo District.

GETTING THERE

By Air, Then Five Minutes by Boat

30 MIN

THE FLIGHT FROM BELIZE CITY

Local flights run from Belize City International (BZE) to Placencia airstrip in thirty minutes. The island's reservations team books them for you — forward your international flight details and they handle the rest.

5 MIN

AIRSTRIP TO THE BOAT

Staff meet your flight at the Placencia airstrip and drive you to the island's boat launch in the village, minutes away.

<5 MIN

THE BOAT TO THE ISLAND

The crossing from the private launch site takes under five minutes, in protected water that is never rough. The boat and driver then stay at your disposal for the whole stay.

Driving from Belize City takes about three hours, and a shuttle can be hired instead. Check-in is 3pm and checkout 12pm; the staff flex both around your flights.

DAYS OUT

Days Out from the Island

DAY OUT	FROM PLACENCIA
MONKEY RIVER	40 min by boat	Howler monkeys and manatees on a jungle river run
SILK CAYES	by boat	Coral-garden snorkelling — turtles, rays, nurse sharks
XUNANTUNICH	100-mile drive	El Castillo Maya temple, then cave tubing
BOCAWINA	an hour's drive	Zip lining and a waterfall rappel in the national park

THE SHORT VERSION

Tours are arranged by the island's concierge, before you arrive or once you are on the island — the full list is on the Adventures page at lhcbelize.com.

LITTLE HARVEST CAYE · PRIVACY INDEX / 100

WHOLE ISLAND — ONE GROUP AT A TIME

Gold fill — Whole Island, the only way the island is let.

LITTLE HARVEST CAYE

WHO ELSE IS THERE — 14 / 20

One group at a time — up to twelve adults across five suites — with the island's staff living on site in their own separate house.

WHO CAN GET IN — 15 / 20

Boat-only access across protected water, staff on the island around the clock and a night watchman — but the mainland shore is less than a mile away and the channel is open to any boat.

SPACE TO DISAPPEAR — 11 / 20

1.5 acres shared by up to twelve guests and the staff — five suites with private patios and open-air bathrooms, but no corner of the island is far from another.

OUT OF SIGHT, SOUND & TRAFFIC — 10 / 20

The island stands in full view of Placencia Village less than a mile away, excursion boats cross the channel, and the village's bars and restaurants are close at hand.

INVISIBLE SERVICE — 15 / 20

The chef, housekeeper and caretaker-concierge live in a separate staff house behind the kitchen — service is personal and on call, and the staff quarters sit apart from the guest suites.
